IRS Transcript Online

About

An IRS transcript is a document that provides a summary of a taxpayer's tax account activity. This document includes important tax-related information such as the amount of taxes owed, payments made, and the dates those payments were received. Additionally, an IRS transcript online may also show any penalties or interest charged to a taxpayer's account, as well as any adjustments made to their tax return. Taxpayers can access their transcripts online through the IRS website or by requesting a physical copy via mail. These transcripts are useful tools for taxpayers who need to provide proof of income or tax history to lenders, government agencies, or other interested parties.

Here is what's visible on transcripts:

- Last four digits of any SSN: XXX-XX-1234
- Last four digits of any EIN: XX-XXX4321
- Last four digits of any account or telephone number
- First four characters of the first and last name for any individual (first three characters if the name has only four letters)
- First four characters of any name on the business name line (first three characters if the name has only four letters)
- First six characters of the street address, including spaces
- All money amounts, including wage and income, balance due, interest and penalties

The IRS will provide unmasked Wage and Income transcripts when needed for preparing and filing tax returns. Unmasked Wage and Income transcripts fully display personally identifiable information such as the taxpayer's name, address, and Social Security number along with the employer's name, address, and Employer Identification number.

Return transcripts show most line items from your Form 1040-series tax return as it was originally filed, including any accompanying forms and schedules. In many cases, a return transcript will meet the requirements of lending institutions offering mortgages and student loans.

Account Transcript
Account transcripts show changes you or the IRS made after you filed your original return, such as making estimated tax payments or filing an amended return.

Record of Account Transcript
Record of account transcripts combine the information from return and account transcripts.

Wage & Income Transcript
Wage and income transcripts show data from information returns, such as W-2s, 1098s, and 1099s reported to the IRS. Most recent year information may not be complete until July.

Verification of Non-filing Letter
Verification of non-filing letters state that IRS does not have a record of a processed tax return as of the date of the letter. Note – If there is an error when trying to view your letter, you'll need to request the letter by submitting Form 4506-T.
